Wednesday, 6th november – TOUR TO ALBUFEIRA (mínimum de 25 persons)

Albufeira is a Portuguese city in the district of Faro, region and sub-region of the Algarve.

The municipality is limited to the west and northwest by the municipality of Silves, to the northeast and to the east by Loulé and to the south it has a wide coast in the Atlantic Ocean.

The toponym Albufeira comes from the Arabic word al-Buñayra, designation of s. VIII, which means the lagoon or by the sea, or, according to other specialists, castle of the sea, arranging altaneira and in amphitheater on the sea. The narrow streets, the old castle and the very white houses with their roofs and arches survive from the Arab period.

The current area of the municipality of Albufeira is occupied by man at least since 2000 a. C. The Romans gave him the designation of Baltum and the Arabs. that they occupied in 716, they named it Albuar or Albuhera.

Its castle, practically impenetrable due to its strategic position, was the last Arab stronghold to fall into the hands of King Alfonso III of Portugal. In the year 1250, in the year 1250, it was donated to the order of Avis.

The five centuries of Arab presence can speak of a profound alteration of the urban and rural reality that still today constitute a true Arab legacy. Advances in agricultural techniques (daughter-in-law, sugar gardens, orchards, etc.) are, on the other hand, white houses with roofs and winding streets, in addition to innumerable linguistic influences.

From the 1960s, Albufeira has become a great tourist city of international renown. The town was elevated to the city through the law of August 23, 1986.

10: 00h Departure by bus from REAL Sta. Eulália hotels. Visit to Paderne, Ojos de Agua, Historical Center, etc. Around 13:30, lunch at the La Lagosteira restaurant with Algarve gastronomy tasting. Return to the hotels at 17:00
