Tourism Programmes

The pre-conference tours for CEUCO 2026 offer participants a unique opportunity to discover the culinary, cultural, historical and natural diversity of the Lisbon Region.

The programme covers several municipalities in the metropolitan area, showcasing the best each region has to offer.

From the historical heritage of Lisbon and its iconic neighbourhoods to the coastal landscapes of Arrábida, each itinerary has been designed to showcase the region's authenticity and richness.
Participants will be able to visit iconic monuments and lesser-known sites, take part in wine and cheese tastings in Azeitão, and discover traditional crafts, such as tile-making.

These visits combine discovery, learning and leisure, offering a complete immersion in the region's cultural and human heritage.

They have been designed to make the CEUCO 2026 experience not only enriching, but truly memorable, fostering social interaction and bringing together participants from different backgrounds.

Take a look below at the programme we've put together for YOU!!!
